TIMEFORM VIEW: MY NOBLE LORD, a most progressive handicapper on the Flat, has both the physique and attitude to take well to this new discipline, so he's fancied to get his hurdle career off to the perfect start. City of London makes plenty of appeal on paper being a half-brother to smart hurdler Nemean Lion, while Rakki is in the right hands to do well in this sphere.

TIMEFORM VIEW: A novice won by the likes of Cue Card and Fingal Bay. BOOMBAWN, whose stable won this last year with subsequent Grand Annual winner Unexpected Party, has already shown a useful level of form over fences and that experience should count for plenty up against chase debutants. Cuthbert Dibble appeals as a smart chasing prospect so rates the main threat.

Jockey Colours:

Red, brown sleeves, red and brown hooped cap

Timeform says:

Useful 17f dual-hurdles winner in France in 2022 who later changed hands for €250,000 in July that year. Below that level in 3 starts for Phillip Hobbs but proved he retains ability when fourth in listed hurdle at Compiègne on yard debut/comeback a year ago. Not seen since, however. Chase debut.★★★★☆ (Forecast 19.00)

Jockey Colours:

Yellow, emerald green star, yellow sleeves, emerald green stars, yellow cap, emerald green star

Timeform says:

Ludlow maiden hurdle winner on final start of 2022/23 campaign and made successful start over fences at the same course last November. Returned to this sphere with a creditable third to Take No Chances at Uttoxeter (23.3f, good to soft) when last seen in May but he may again find one or 2 too good.★★★★☆ (Forecast 34.00)
